Susan Blackwood Watercolor Workshop, March 9-12, 2020, 4 days

OK, the second workshop will be taught by Susan Blackwood. Her workshop will be titled; From Florals to Landscapes - The Secrets They Share. Please join Susan for 4 days of in-depth knowledge that will apply to all your subjects and styles, starting with still life and continuing with landscapes. She will help you find and express the emotional response that makes for a powerful painting and help to take you to the next level.

The aim of this class will be tailored to you: Bring your questions, bring your photo of your favorite paintings that you created; Bring another painting (unframed) to analyze and improve upon.

No matter what level you are from beginner to professional, all are welcome. You'll take away information that will help your paintings to continue to grow higher into your next level and beyond.

Susan recently relocated from Montana to the NW Arkansas area and now lives in Bella Vista. We're excited to have her talent in our area and for her to teach a workshop for the ANA membership and others who may be interested in signing up.

Mark your calendar for March 9 through 12 (Mon - Thurs), 2020 at the Sequoyah United Methodist Church at 1910 N. Old Wire Road, Fayetteville. Times from 9:00 to 4:00PM. I will put out a materials list on our Website when I get the class set up on our automated RegFox system, hopefully within another week or two. If you don't want to pay using RegFox, I will accept your check made out to Artists of NW Arkansas at my mailing address above. Class size will be limited to 18. The ANA member cost to learn from one of the best will only be $150. Nonmember cost will be $250, so make sure you are up to date on your membership dues. I urge you to visit her website to see her work at: www.susanblackwood.com.
